FUN FACTS ABOUT BINGO

WHO RENAMED THE GAME 'BINGO?'

Edwin Lowe

Lowe renamed it after he heard a bingo contestant, in Atlanta, Georgia, scream "bingo" instead of "beano." Edwin was a New York toy salesman.

WHAT WAS 'BINGO' ORIGINALLY CALLED?

Beano

Beano, later called bingo, was a game played at fairs in the country. The person who won would yell, "beano!", instead of, "bingo!"

HOW MANY BINGO GAMES WERE PLAYED A WEEK IN 1934?

10,000

In this day and age, approximately ninety million dollars worth of bingo cards are bought a week, counting the continent of North America alone!

WHICH BINGO NUMBER HAS THE WORD 'LEGS' BEFORE IT?

11 (Eleven)

This is yet again based on the shape of the number and the two numbers 1s when next to each other look like a pair of legs, it's as simple as that!

WHO MADE ALL THE BINGO CARD COMBINATIONS?

Carl Leffler

Edwin and Carl ended up making over 6000 combinations in 1930. There are rumours that Carl went insane afterwards.

THE TERM 'BLIND' IS ATTACHED TO ALL BINGO NUMBERS ENDING WITH A WHAT?

0 (Zero)

I am not sure where this phrase originated but if anyone knows I would appreciate it if you feel like sharing!

AT WHICH UNIVERSITY DID THE MAN WHO MADE UP ALL THE COMBINATIONS FOR BINGO CARDS TEACH?

Columbia University

Carl Leffler was a university professor at Columbia University. He was hired by Edwin Lowe to create all the combos of letters and numbers.

FROM WHICH STATE DID THE CATHOLIC PRIEST COME FROM, WHO APPROACHED LOWE ABOUT USING BINGO FOR FUNDRAISING?

Pennsylvania

Bingo's popularity greatly rose after this; it is used everywhere to fundraise for many different things.

THERE ARE MANY NICKNAMES WHEN ADVANCED PLAYERS ARE PLAYING BINGO. WHAT IS SLANG FOR THE NUMBER 37?

A flea in heaven

These are some others: a duck and a flea- 23, top of the house- 90, and open two doors- 44.

WHAT WAS BINGO CALLED IN AUSTRALIA IN THE EARLY 20TH CENTURY?

Housie

Housie was held in large marquees until it was moved into halls later on. Instead of bingo or beano, the player would shout "house!"
